DENNISON FEASTED BY ASSOCIATES

Banquet Given in His Honor by Heads of Oahu Railway Departments.

Departmental heads of the Oahu Railway and Land Department tendered a farewell dinner at the Moana Hotel on Monday evening to George P. Dennison, the popular superintendent of the road, who departs on the Mariposa today for a three months' vacation on the Mainland. The dinner was given in the private dining-room of the hostelry, and covers were laid for twenty guests. The superintendent will be selected at was toasted, and his abilities in railroad work lauded by his associates, and he goes upon his journey with the alohas of the Oahu Railway and its

Mr. Dennison occupied the seat of Young Men's Christian honor, and flanking him on either side were the following gentlemen:

Walter F. Dillingham, Dr. Charles B. Cooper, W. H. Hoogs, R. R. Berg, J. Kelker, A. E. Cooley, Capt. Parker, J. A. Hughes, James Flower, L. Petrie, Captain Ryder, H. N. Dennison, Captain Amesbury, C. I. Lewis, C. M. White, H. M. von Holt, L. E. Pinkham, Fred C. Smith, C. A. Musgrave.

There was a general escape of steam during the speeches, and railroadisms were frequent. It was a happy event from the moment the superintendent gave the signal to start, shortly after 8 o'clock, and the function only slowed up when the steam began to give out, Each department head responded for Washington, leaves his branch of the railroad service.
